Opt-Outs & Objections

19. What is the difference between opting-out of the Settlement Class or objecting to the Settlement?

Opting-out is telling the Court you do not want to be in the Settlement Class. If you opt-out of the Settlement Class, you cannot object or submit a Claim because you are no longer part of the Settlement Class, and the Settlement does not apply to you.

Objecting is telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class and you do not opt-out of the Settlement Class. If you object, you can submit a Claim because you are still part of the Settlement Class.

Postmark Deadlines

20. What do I need to know about postmark deadlines?

Please note that per the United States Postal Service, mail may not be postmarked the day it is put in a mailbox or dropped off at a local post office. Postmarks occur when mail reaches a processing facility.

To meet a postmark deadline, it is recommended that you mail at least a week prior to a postmark deadline, get a manual postmark in-person at any post office, or send via Certified Mail.

Do Nothing

21. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will stay in the Settlement Class, and the Settlement will apply to you. You must submit a Claim to receive a Cash Payment. You will automatically receive your Medical Data Monitoring activation code. If you do nothing, you will be legally bound by the Settlement and the Court's orders and judgments.

Class Counsel

22. As a member of the Settlement Class, do I have a lawyer in the lawsuit?

Yes. For a class action lawsuit, a judge selects lawyers called "Class Counsel" to handle the lawsuit for all Class Members. For this lawsuit, the Court selected lawyers Jeff Ostrow of Kopelowitz Ostrow P.A. and Mariya Weekes of Milberg PLLC as Class Counsel.

You may hire your own lawyer at your own cost if you want a lawyer other than Class Counsel to represent you in this Action.

23. How will Class Counsel be paid?

Class Counsel will file an Application for Attorneys' Fees, Costs and Service Awards asking the Court for attorneys' fees and costs up to $1,100,000 and Service Awards for the Class Representatives up to $2,500 each. If awarded by the Court, these requested amounts will be paid by the Defendant. The Court may award less than these amounts.
